V GENERAL MEETING

The General Meeting is the policy and decision making body of EFAD

The General Meeting is made up of representatives of each of the member associations. It is held at least every second year.

The invitation with a draft agenda is sent out by the Secretary General at least six months before the General Meeting.

Each member Association has a right to only one vote.
A member association is entitled to vote by proxy.

Decisions on alterations to the Articles will only be taken on a 2/3 majority of votes cast in favour.

Votes on all other matters will be by a simple majority of votes cast in favour.
In the event of an equal number of votes cast, the Honorary President will have a casting vote.

The General Meeting can suspend one of the Executive Committee, the Honorary President or a member association at any time. Vacancies will be filled as soon as possible or by election at the following General Meeting.

The Honorary President chairs the General Meetings

VI EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

An Extraordinary General Meeting can be called by the Honorary President or on the written request of a quarter of the member associations of EFAD.

The reason for calling the Extraordinary General Meeting must be submitted in writing to each member association at least two months before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting.

Each member association has a right to one vote only.

A member association is entitled to vote by proxy.

Decisions on alterations to the Articles will only be taken on a 2/3 majority of votes cast in favour.

Votes on all other matters will be by a simple majority of votes cast in favour.

In the event of an equal number of votes cast, the Honorary President will have a casting vote.
