

Kristianstad
University
Sweden

Where is Kristianstad located?

Kristianstad
University
Sweden

Kristianstad University in figures

- 14,600 students
- 70% women and 30% men
- 40 programmes and 630 courses
- 7 programmes and 100 courses are offered in English

Bachelor program "Food and Meal Science"

- Started in 2004
- Food and Meal Science is multidisciplinary;
 - Health and Nutrition
 - Food Science incl. Food-microbiology and chemistry
 - Food Culture and Communication

DRF
DIETISTERNAS
RIKSFÖRBUND

Elisabet Rothenberg, associated professor
President
elisabet.rothenberg@hkr.se

CV

- President of the association of clinical dietitians in Sweden 2000-.
- EFAD (European Federation of Associations of Dietitians) expert of malnutrition 2010-
- Expert group food and health, National food administration 2008-
- National Guidelines for disease prevention, The National Board of Health and Welfare 2008-2010,

CV

- Disease related malnutrition, The National Board of Health and Welfare 2009-
- Senior alert quality register, Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions 2010-
- Board member of SWESPEN (the Swedish Association of Clinical Nutrition and Metabolism).

CV

- Assistant professor Kristianstad University 2014-
- Published 42 peer-reviewed articles, 50 peer-reviewed conference contributions/poster presentations and 31 review articles, book chapters, books, reports etc.

Research interest

- Body composition
- Sarcopenia
- Nutritional status
- Food habits and energy and nutrient intake in older adults in health and disease
- Disease related malnutrition