Extract from Guidelines for EFAD Committees, Networks, Experts & Representatives

Ratified by the 32nd EFAD General Meeting October 2021

Standing Committees

Definition

The term "standing committee" in this document refers to the Executive Committee (EC), the Professional Practice Committee (PPC), the Research and Evidence Based Practice Committee (REBPC), the Education and Lifelong Learning Committee (ELLLC), the ESDN committees, the EFAD Conference Organising Committee (ECOC) and the EFAD Conference Scientific Programme Committee (ECSPC).

Other "ad hoc" committees or task and finish groups may be established by the EFAD Executive Committee on a temporary basis as required.

Purpose

The role of the committees is to implement the policies and decisions of the EFAD General Meeting and Executive Committee, as described in the EFAD Strategic Plan, including embedding European Dietetic Advanced Competences, the Lifelong Learning strategy.

Selection of committee members is guided by the "EFAD Policy on Selecting Representatives, Committee Members and European Specialist Dietetic Network members". Executive Committee members must be Full Member Associations. Other committee members must be members of an EFAD member association (Full, Affiliate or Education Associate). The term of office for all committee members is 4 years. Committee members may be re-elected.

Committee members are expected to undertake preparation and reading of papers and background documents etc. and to attend regular committee meetings. The time commitment can be expected to be between 1 & 2 hours a week.

The work of the committees is supported by the Executive Director and administrative assistant/office manager.

Committee members will not be reimbursed for their work, but any previously approved expenses incurred on behalf of EFAD will be reimbursed. Only expense claims complying with the EFAD Policy on Claiming Reimbursement will be reimbursed.

Committee budgets will be confirmed on a year-to-year basis

Terms of Reference for Standing Committees

1. Hold regular (virtual) meetings, which are recorded in agendas and minutes posted on the EFAD web site
2. Provide an annual report (for inclusion in the EFAD annual report), describing their work on development of the dietetic profession in their specialist field, including any research, publications or guideline development
3. Present annual work plans, including budget, to EFAD Executive Committee for approval at least 6 months before the year commences
4. Communicate work of committee through EFAD's newsletter and EFAD website, conference and e-journal.
5. Follow the EFAD publishing policy and use the EFAD logo on all publications and documents
6. Only enter into collaboration agreements which are in line with the "EFAD policy for sponsorship and collaboration with industry"
7. Ensure that consultation procedures for external enquiries are simple and transparent
8. Maintain a list of members on the EFAD web site
9. Monitor and evaluate the work of the committee against EC approved performance indicators
10. Set-up small task and finish groups as appropriate to support the development and delivery of the committee's work plans

Guidelines for Standing Committees on reporting and quality assurance

1. Publish the agenda for each meeting, with all accompanying documentation, on the EFAD web site at least one week before the meeting
2. Inform all committee members where the agenda and supporting documents can be accessed at least one week before the meeting
3. Inform all committee members of the date and time of each meeting four weeks before the meeting
4. Publish the minutes for each meeting on the EFAD web site no more than two weeks after of the meeting
5. Submit a report on how the committee is meeting its deliverables to the Executive Committee each month
6. Submit a report for inclusion in the EFAD Annual Report each year
7. All documents must contain the EFAD logo and show the date of preparation.

Responsibilities and Duties of EFAD Standing Committee

Members

The duties and obligations of committee members and co-opted committee members are to:

- 1 Implement the Strategic Plan and Annual Work Plans as directed by the Executive Committee
- 2 Develop policies/strategies and procedures
- 3 Participate actively in all committee meetings. There will normally be a maximum of two face-to-face meetings a year, of up to 2 days duration and a short virtual meeting in each month that does not have a face-to-face meeting. If a committee member fails to attend three consecutive committee meetings or does not reply to three consecutive emails or requests for information his/her nominating Association will be informed and his/her committee membership may be terminated.
- 4 Contribute to the GM, EC & own committee agendas, identify and propose areas of work and direction of the committee, guided by the work plans
- 5 Respond quickly to enquiries from the committee chair and other committee members
- 6 Ensure that deadlines are met
- 7 Represent EFAD when asked to do so by the committee chair or the Executive Committee and report back to the Executive Committee
- 8 Liaise with other Committees of EFAD to ensure a seamless and transparent approach to effective use of resources and implementation of initiatives.
- 9 Committee members who are also the delegates for their association should continue to carry out the duties and responsibilities described for EFAD Delegates (see pg 8)
